Saloma Theatre Restaurant

Experience the local delights

Saloma takes you on a gastronomic experience where wonderful aromas and flavor beckon. Best described as seasonal, fresh and innovative, allowing the flavors of the freshest fruits, vegetables, meat and seafood to shine in both classic as well as creative combinations. The style in which the food is served is contemporary, however, the flavors and cooking methods take their influences from Asia... speaks volume of 'Malaysia Truly Asia'.

The keynote presenters for the 23rd World Congress include leaders from both the East and the West. Dr. Wai-Yung Lee from Hong Kong will lead off the plenary addresses on Thursday focusing on Working with Asian Families. Dr. Judith Landau from the USA will present the Arise Model during the Friday plenary. The Essence of Therapeutic Change will be the closing the plenary address by Kathlyne Maki-Banmen (Canada) from the Satir Institute of the Pacific.

1st IFTA Intensive Institute

Izmir, Turkey

October 2-3, 2015

The 1st IFTA Intensive Institute will be held October 2 -3 of 2015 in Izmir, Turkey. We invite you to join colleagues from around the world at the Swissotel Grand Efes, a five-star hotel in the heart of Izmir by the Aegean Sea.

The Intensive Institute is designed to allow practitioners the opportunity to spend an entire day with a master presenter and clinician. For this first Institute, the presenters will be:

Peter Fraenkel

Peter Fraenkel, Ph.D., is Associate Professor of Clinical Psychology, The City College of New York; Director, Ackerman Institute's Center for Work and Family; and is in private practice in New York City, specializing in couple and family therapy. Dr. Fraenkel is the author of Sync Your Relationship,

Save Your Marriage: Four Steps to Getting Back on Track (2011, Palgrave-Macmillan), co-author of The Relational Trauma of Incest: A Family-Based Approach to Treatment (2001, Guilford Press), and author of numerous publications on time, technology, work and family; collaborative community-based programs for homeless families and families that have survived domestic violence; integrative approaches to couple and family therapy; and child sexual abuse. Dr. Fraenkel received AFTA's 2012 award for Innovative Contribution to Family Therapy.

Monica McGoldrick

Monica McGoldrick, MA, MSW, PhD (Hon), is Director of the Multicultural Family Institute in Highland Park, NJ and on the Psychiatric Faculty at the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. She has a BA from Brown University, an MA in Russian Studies from Yale University, and an MSW and an Honorary

Doctorate from Smith College. A fourth generation Irish American, married to a Greek immigrant, her closest emotional connection while growing up was to her African American caretaker, Margaret Bush. Knowing little about her roots while growing up, Dr. McGoldrick through her family therapy work came to believe deeply in the importance of connections to family and cultural history. She is internationally known for her writings and teachings on topics including culture, class, gender, the family life cycle, loss, family patterns (genograms), remarried families, and sibling relationships. Her books include—The Changing Family Life Cycle, 4th ed. in press; Ethnicity and Family Therapy, 3rd ed; Genograms: Assessment and Intervention, 3rd ed; Living Beyond Loss, 2nd ed; Re-visioning Family Therapy: Therapy, Race, Culture and Gender in Family Practice, 2nd ed; and The Genogram Journey: Reconnecting with Your Family, to be published by WW Norton, Fall, 2010.
