DOLPHIN AND WHALE WATCHING

Panama is the only place in the world blessed with Humpback whale migrations from both the Southern and Northern hemispheres. During the Southern hemisphere Humpback whale migration, July-October each year, we have a 95% chance of spending time with the whales. Panama waters are home to over 30 species of cetaceans (dolphins & whales). In the Pearl Islands, (home to 2 seasons of the Survivor TV series), Taboga or Taboguilla, there are crystal clear turquoise waters and many islands, some deserted, where you can observe these extraordinary creatures. This is a familiar scene during this time of year in the warm waters of the Pacific ocean, specifically between Panama City and Contadora Island where hundreds of whales gather to mate in the Bay of Panama. Whale watchers approach to observe this majestic spectacle, which is without a doubt a valuable attraction for Panama.

INCLUDED: Ground and boat transport, soft drinks and snacks on board, tour guide. RECOMMENDATIONS: Simple and light clothing, wet shoes or sneakers, sunblock sunglasses, hat, bathing suit, beach towel.

NOTE: Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.

Tour available from July to October. DEPARTURE: 8:30 a.m. RETURN: 5:00 p.m.

ECO CANAL & SUMMIT MUNICIPAL PARK

This great adventure will lead you to learn about the exuberant vegetation around Gatun Lake in the Panama Canal area, touring several islands and channels where you will find exotic flora and fauna. Undoubtedly, there is always something enchanting to see, whether it be the sloth, always relaxing, hugging their trees; or the turtles, shy but courageous at the same time, alligators and crocodiles showing off proudly on the fresh water of the lake. The boat tour lasts approximately 60 minutes. This excursion is ideal for nature lovers where they will watch wildlife, enjoying magnificent surroundings of tropical plants, endemic trees, and foreign species introduced to the canal during its construction. Upon returning, we will visit Summit Municipal Park: "A gem within the Soberanía [Sovereignty] National Park", which has a small zoo and a large variety of native and foreign species. The most representative specie in the park is the Harpy Eagle, Panama's national bird.

INCLUDED: Bus and river transportation on speed boats with maximum capacity of 20 persons each), entry fees, English speaking tour guide, and beverages.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Light clothing, sneakers, hat, sun block, insect repellent, sunglasses. NOTES:

- Please abstain from carrying and showing visible objects to monkeys during the visit to the island.
- Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.

DEPARTURE: 9:00 a.m. RETURN: 1:30 p.m.

EMBERA INDIGENOUS COMMUNITY

The Emberá Indians are one of the many ethnic indigenous tribes in Panama. Visitors are welcome to discover their culture in one of their communities, EmberáPurú, PararáPurú or EmberáDrua (choice depends on climatic conditions), each located on the banks of one of the most important rivers in the Canal Basin. After 1 1/2 hours of scenic bus ride to the banks of the San Juan or Charges River, we are met by representatives of the Emberá Indians, who take us up the river in piraguas, a 35 minute boat ride. We then arrive to the community originating from the mountainous region of the Darién province. We will experience the history and culture of the indigenous culture, through narrative, traditional dance and craftsmanship like baskets woven from the natural fibers of the chunga, maquenque and naguala palm trees, as well as figures carved in cocobolo wood and taqua (better known as vegetable ivory) available for sale. We will enjoy a typical lunch of fried fish and yucca or plantains, and listen to an explanation on behalf of the Botanist on the medical use of some plants. This is the opportunity to try an ancestral custom in the form of a tattoo with jagua, an extract from vegetable seeds, which the Indians use to adorn their bodies with geometrical patterns or animal sketches for ceremonies and special celebrations. There is also time for a refreshing bath in the natural pools formed in the waterfall.

INCLUDED: Ground and boat transport in an engine-powered piragua, English-speaking tour guide, donation to the community and park, traditional lunch, soft drinks, snack, fruits and tattoo (included if desired).

RECOMMENDATIONS: Light and simple clothing, wet shoes or sneakers, bathing suit, towel, change of clothes, sun block, insect repellent. NOTE:

- Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.
- Weather is out of our control and your safety may cause the cancellation of the walk to the waterfall. We would then only visit the Community.
 DEPARTURE: 9:00 a.m.
 RETURN: 5:00 p.m.

FOLKLORIC SHOW & TRADITIONAL DINNER

One could say of Panamanian folklore that it is indeed the best illustration of the motto "Panama, crossroads of the world, Heart of the Universe ". From their early beginnings, Panamanian people have been forging their identity using an inscrutably simple heart as a tool and an astonishing array of cultural diversity as the raw material. The result: primitive African drums, dresses in the exquisite Seville pollera, (National dress of Panama), a tamborito, while Celtic voices may be heard in a cumbia. The flavors of five continents may find harmony in one typical dish. All this is the final product of a process of cultural blending in the making. Meet the true soul of a living people!

INCLUDED: Ground transport, typical dinner, folkloric show, taxes, gratuities, English speaking tour guide (for groups of 20 persons more).

RECOMMENDATIONS: Casual dress.

DAYS AVAILABLE: Monday through Saturday. DEPARTURE: 7:00 p.m. RETURN: 10.00 p.m.

GAMBOA EXHIBITIONS & AERIAL TRAM

Visit the vast botanical garden and discover the lush vegetation and wildlife. From the aerial tram at a height of 36 mts / 118 ft, the panoramic view will give you the opportunity to admire the diversity of trees, birds, hummingbirds, butterflies, monkeys in their natural habitat, in addition to having a stunning view of Lake Gatún. A visit to the orchid nursery, the aquarium, the serpentarium, the butterfly exhibit in our tropical forest will conclude your day.

INCLUDED: Ground transport, English speaking tour guide, aerial tram, exhibits entrance, lunch and beverages.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Light clothing, walking shoes, hat, sun block, insect repellent. NOTE: schedule of aerial tram ride will vary according to time of arrival. DEPARTURE: 8:00 a.m. RETURN: 3:30 p.m.

INTRO TO BIRDWATCHING ON THE PIPELINE ROAD

The Pipeline Road is located in the heart of the Parque Nacional Soberanía, a mere 45 minutes from downtown Panama City. That makes it one of the most easily accessible tropical forests in the world. Over its 17 Km./11 miles the stretch of road offers a truly exciting bird watching experience. In Christmas, counts organized by the Panama Audubon Society, members have registered the highest number of species seen during a 24-hour period: 394.

The surrounding tropical forest is as diverse as the birdlife; in the Parque Nacional Soberanía there are approximately 1,300 species of trees, 105 species of mammals, 55 species of amphibians and 79 species of reptiles.

DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY: | - ||

LAS PERLAS ARCHIPELAGO

A lush, volcanic archipelago lies just 30 miles south of Panama City, named for its iridescent undersea wealth: The Pearl Islands. After a 90 minute boat trip you will arrive to a magnificent snorkeling spot amidst the 100 islands (many tiny and uninhabited) that compose the archipelago. The largest island, at about 30 square miles (78 km), Isla del Rey ("Island of the King"), it is easily larger than the other Pearl Islands combined, and is the second largest island in Panama, after Coiba. This exciting ocean adventure takes you also to beautiful and charming Contadora island, the most notable island in the area. Contadora was said to be used by the Spanish Conquistadors as a stop for taking inventory of the booty prior to returning to Spain, hence the name (contador means bookkeeper or counter in Spanish). Nowadays, Contadora is a resort island, with many homes owned by wealthy Panamanians. Take time to discover the island and savour a fabulous island lunch. INCLUDED: Ground and boat transport, soft drinks and snacks on board, tour guide, snorkeling equipment.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Simple and light clothing, wet shoes or sneakers, sunblock, insect repellent, sunglasses, hat, bathing suit, beach towel.

NOTE: Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.

DEPARTURE: 8:30 a.m. RETURN: 4:00 p.m.

NATURE TRAIL AT THE PANAMA RAINFOREST DISCOVERY CENTER ON PIPELINE ROAD

The 24km Pipeline Road was built during the 2nd World War for transportation of fuel between the two oceans but was never used, the Panamá Canal never having been threatened. Pipeline Road later came to a new fame for the rich ecosystem revealed by the many scientific studies of its fauna and flora. The Panamá Rainforest Discovery Center has the mission of protecting the rainforest through sustainable tourism. There is a 1km walking trail leading to a 32mts observation tower with resting platforms accessible by a spiral staircase. Once on the top deck, you will enjoy a 360° panoramic view of the canopy. It is a prime bird watching location and many species such as toucans, hummingbirds, and blue coting are regular sightings on Pipeline Road. Further, we reach a small wooden deck on the edge of Lake Calamito for the observation of water wildlife such as jacanas, grebes, herons, snail kite, crocodiles, sloth, coati, butterflies, proliferating in the Canal watershed.

INCLUDED: Ground transport, English speaking tour guide, entry fees, on site native guide, snack and beverages.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Light clothing (avoid bright colors), long pants, walking shoes, repellent, sunglasses, hat.

MINIMUM AGE: 12 years old (in the observation tower)

NOTE: Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour. Smoking is prohibited. DEPARTURE: 7:30 a.m. RETURN: 11:30 a.m.

SURF EL PALMAR BEACH

A mere 80 minutes from the city we will find El Palmar, a small coastal town on Panama's Pacific Coast where you will find the Panamá Surf School, located in a privileged area of the Pacific Gulf, offering the possibility to surf in one of the country's most recognized beaches. The Surf School has a beachfront location with excellent waves that are ideal for beginners, as well as for experienced surfers. It is the ideal place to have fun and learn one of the most exciting water sports in the world. Professional surfers teach the classes and you will learn the basic aspects of this sports activity so that you can have a fun and safe experience. There is one instructor per two students. No prior experience is required, only a desire to have fun learning one of the most exciting aquatic sports and to embark in an adventure of riding the waves! Additionally, you may enjoy some beach time. Rental of surfboards to experienced surfers available.

INCLUDED: Ground transport, 2 hours of introductory training per person (theory, practice on sand and on water) bilingual instructor (Spanish – English), surfboard, snack, and refreshments.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Must know how to swim, change of clothes, beach towel, swimsuit, sun block, hat, sunglasses, rash guard or normal t-shirt to use during class. MINIMUM AGE: 12 years old

PHYSICAL CONDITIONS: Must be in good physical conditions and have no blood pressure or heart problems.

NOTES:

- Due to climatic conditions changes may be made prior to or during planned activities and schedules may change according to the tide.
- Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.

DEPARTURE: 9:00 a.m. RETURN: 5:00 p.m.

THE PARTY BUS – CHIVA RUMBERA

The ultimate party! A night time tour of the city aboard a brightly painted "chiva", the folkloric Panamanian means of transportation and to the sounds of a "murga", a Panamanian live band, made up of brass instruments and percussion, playing traditional music. The program for the evening involves a variety of activities, from dancing on board the moving chiva to fun games and activities all conducted by professional animators that will make you forget the routine of everyday life. The barmen are at your entire disposal and eager to quench the thirst provoked by the warm tropical nights. And, in addition to having a good time and relaxing, you'll also experience the unique beauty of the city and its tourist sites by night.

INCLUDED: Tour through the city, local animators (Spanish / English), open bar (seco herrerano, rum and soft drinks), live music and games.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Casual dress, comfortable shoes and a lot of party spirit. NOTE: Pregnant women or clients under the influence of alcohol or any other form of intoxication will not be allowed on this tour.
